Presuming that there is no further need for the above documents on the part of either the SPO or ASPO it is the writer's recommendation that same be consigned to the Contractor's files for potential future reference. The documents would be retained until such time as the Contractor would determine that same provided no significant program benefit - At this point the records would be destroyed.

SPO concurrence with the above is requested.

With the disposition of the above records the writer trusts that all requirements under the subject Contract item have been completed. In the event additional information is required please contact the undersigned.

Regards,

Jim
